Greetings from Congressman Michael M. Honda to the Amit Zutshi Foundation on the Book Signing Event for Author Jeevan Zutshi's *The Last Smile

December 4, 2009

It is with great pleasure that I welcome everyone to the book signing event for Jeevan Zutshi's The Last Smile hosted by the Amit Zutshi Foundation. I would like to recognize the foundation's commitment to providing the community with knowledge of health supplements.

In 2008, the Amit Zutshi Foundation was established after Amit Zutshi tragically lost his life to over-the-counter health supplements. The organization's mission is to raise awareness about the over consumption of over-the-counter health supplements and their harmful effects. Furthermore, the foundation works to encourage the Food and Drug Administration to more closely examine over-the-counter health supplements.

In his book The Last Smile, Jeevan Zutshi tells the story of his life; from growing up in conflict-torn Kashmir to his immigration experience in the United States, and his son's experience with the health care system in our country. Today's book signing event honors the legacy of Amit Zutshi, and the contributions of Mr. Jeevan Zutshi to improve the health standards in our country.

I would like to extend my support for the efforts of the Amit Zutshi Foundation. I offer my best wishes for the success of today's event.

With warm regards,

Michael M. Honda
Member of Congress
